Better Care Starts Here

How I Became an Entrepreneur at 66

Join us for the latest event in our Aging with Style series!

It's never too late to reinvent yourself. Take it from Paul Tasner – at the age of 66, he founded PulpWorks, Inc., an environmentally conscious company that designs and manufactures biodegradable packaging for consumer goods. In our next Aging with Style event, Paul shares his journey in a humorous and inspirational presentation, motivating seniors to pursue their own lifelong ambitions.

PRESENTED BY:

Paul Tasner is an Industrial Engineering graduate of the New Jersey Institute of Technology and holds a PhD in Mathematics from Boston University. PulpWorks and Paul have been the recipients of 20 awards and the subject of more than 60 articles in the media. Paul was selected as a TED Resident in 2017.
